

CONTESTED SPACES

Historiography of the Arab/Israeli Conflict

by Ian J Bickerton & Maria Hill

Levels: Years 11–12

This book covers both the Preliminary and HSC Arab/Israeli components of the new Stage 6 Modern History syllabus in an impartial, clear, student/teacher friendly manner. The text also offers a wide variety of sources balanced with suitable level content.

Features

- Addresses the requirements of the NSW Stage 6 Modern History syllabus
- Includes outcomes and historiography
- Prelim and HSC in one text
- Includes timelines and a glossary of terms and definitions
- Shows opinions of particular events from both sides
- Wide variety of source material is used including documents, maps, diagrams, photos
- Profiles of individuals and bibliographies
- Tables and military statistics
- Simulations and role plays
- Interactive model conference re-enactments

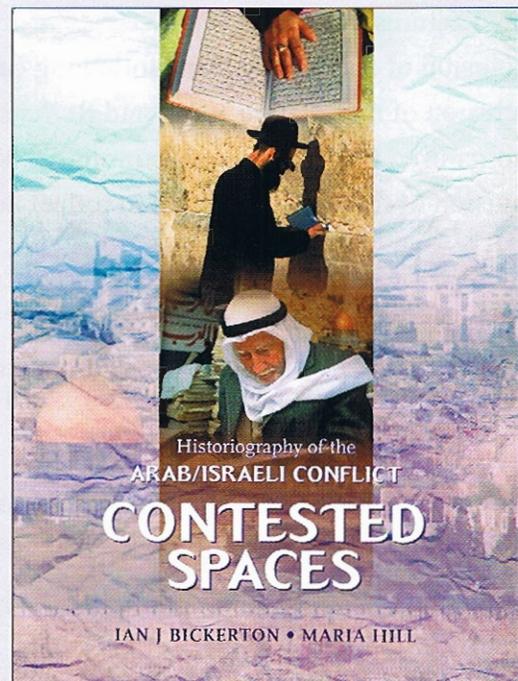

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction: Approaches to the Arab-Israeli Conflict

Chapter 2: Palestine in the 19th Century

Chapter 3: Palestine under the British Mandate

Chapter 4: The Establishment of Israel and the first Arab-Israeli War

Chapter 5: The Suez Canal Crisis

Chapter 6: Israel, its neighbours and Palestinians to 1973

Chapter 7: The Peace Process 1973–1979

Chapter 8: Lebanon, the Intifada, the Gulf War and Madrid

Chapter 9: Oslo and Beyond

Conclusion

Author Details

Both authors are widely acclaimed in their field and are keen to promote the book through workshops and discussion groups.

Ian J. Bickerton is an Associate Professor in the School of History at the University of New South Wales. Ian is an experienced author, who has previously written The Arab-Israeli Conflict 3/e, published in 1996.

Maria Hill is the Head Teacher for History at North Sydney Boys High. She has written an impressive Federation package for the Education Department, which has been issued, to all secondary schools in NSW. Maria is currently on leave for the duration of 2002, to undertake a PhD and write secondary history texts.

